Photolisting

Our system is designed to help you in all aspects of photolisting and to provide you with options.

Sometimes it is not appropriate for children to be featured on the public website. For these children, we have our home study approved families only option. You can even select national, regional, or in-state recruitment areas with this feature.

Our NEW Monthly Interactive Follow-up Email is Active!

There are three sections to the Interactive Follow-Up Email:

- The first is a list of all your current and active children
- The second section is a list of all children who have been updated within the last 30 days
- The third section includes all children with a status of On Hold; those children for whom you are not currently accepting home studies

*" I like the new interactive follow up system. I like that it is only one e-mail and that I can update all the kids at the same time."--

MAP for Professionals

Our MAP for Professionals Login for both child case workers and family adoption workers is a convenient way to view all of the activities associated with your account.

For child Case Workers, you may list additional children with us, update or change the status of a child's listing, and request recruitment services.

You can even search for families based on your child(ren)'s individual criteria.

For family Adoption Workers, you can search for children based on your family's criteria, view your family's profile and make recommendations, and view the children for whom your family has submitted their home study.

MAP for Professionals also provides a way for Social Workers and Adoption Workers to communicate through private email messaging to help streamline the process even more!

Targeted Search

We can search our database of approximately 15,000 families interested in adoption to look for potential matches; you simply provide us with the specific criteria on which you wish to focus such as location or family dynamic.

We then custom design an aesthetically pleasing email to send out to the targeted audience. Extra photo can really make this type of targeted outreach shine, so feel free to share additional photos.

You can request a Targeted Search by contacting our Recruitment Team or by filling out the request form here.

Online Child Matching Event

Online Child Matching Events are a great way for you to connect with families nationwide! Conducted much like a webinar, you can present a particular child or sibling group to home study approved families. Because the participants are home study approved, you can be a little more forthcoming on some of the challenges a family might face, while presenting the child in the best possible light.

Families have the ability to type in questions for you to answer during your presentation. We conduct at least one and usually 2 Online Child Matching Events per month, featuring 4 to 7 children/sibling groups.

"It was convenient, informative, and hearing the caseworkers talk about the kids gave us a better picture of the kids overall." M.H., prospective parent
