Heart Gallery Venue Volunteers Needed!

The Heart Gallery is an exhibit of professional photos taken of foster children, whom are seeking their forever families. This is a traveling exhibit, however there are many venues locally that house some of our Heart Gallery featured children; And it is for these local venues that we need volunteers.

This volunteer opportunity requires that you have your own, reliable means of transportation. You'll be visiting these venues on an every other month basis to update the photos and bios of the featured children and caring for the integrity and cleanliness of the photos and frames.

Venues Needing Volunteers:
