A Family For Every Child Mentor Program

"A Mentor is someone who allows you to see the hope inside yourself"

A Note From The Director:

Happy Fall Everyone!

This fall we are gearing up many great new classes to offer our mentor matches, fun and educational group outings for our group mentoring effort as well as making the rounds presenting to many groups in town about the importance of mentors in the lives of foster and at risk youth. As we approach this time of year, there are many ways everyone can step up and help a foster/at risk youth this holiday season. Every child needs someone who is absolutely crazy about them. Let's make sure they have that person.

Warmest Regards, Mavis Sanchez

Spread the joy this Holiday season and consider gifting a present to a foster child this Holiday!

Is your community business or organization looking to support foster children with gifts this Holiday? A Family For Every Child's Mentor Program would be grateful for any and all donated Holiday gifts for youth in our program. Many of the youth we serve go without gifts each year. Consider making a child's Holiday special by contacting us and learning how you can help! Please call 541-343-2856 or email us at mentor@afamilyforeverychild.org to find out more!

Kids Needing Mentors

Read about some of the youth in our program that are currently in need of a mentor.

Meet Jose!

Jose is a 14 year old boy that lives in Junction City. Jose loves sports of all kinds and loves to explore the outdoors. Jose is in need of a strong male role model that can support Jose in his adolescent years and decision making for his future. Jose is full of possibilities and with the right support from a mentor his future is unstoppable. If Jose seems like a great fit for you, please apply to become his mentor today.

Meet Nicole!

Nicole is a kind 8 year old that lives in the Springfield, OR area! Nicole loves to play with her friends as well as play outside in her neighborhood. Nicole loves all types of food as well as the color blue! Nicole hopes to become a firefighter or a cop when she grows up. Nicole is currently in need of a mentor that is patient, calm and relaxed. Nicole would greatly appreciate a mentor that could help her explore her community and new activities. If Nicole sounds like a great fit for you, please apply to become her mentor today!

Meet Jacob!

Jacob is a sweet and loving 5 year old that lives in Eugene, OR. Jacob loves playing at the park and desires to learn more about how to play sports. Jacob loves cheese pizza! Jacob is in need of a positive and supportive figure in his life that could support his curiosity in sports as well as explore his community. Jacob is restricted in activities due to family factors. If you feel as though you'd be a great mentor to Jacob, please apply to become his mentor today!

Why Should I mentor?

- Mentoring can open your perspective on other ways of life.
- Mentoring helps you become better aware of your communities needs.
- You have the potential to change a child's life.
- Your helping to build a more stable society.

- You may end up with more than a mentee, but a new family member.
- The life you end up changing could be your very own.

Curious if mentoring is right for you?
