

2014 Foundations Training for Caregivers

DHS CHILD WELFARE / TIMBER RIDGE ROOM
1040 HARLOW RD., SPRINGFIELD, OR

Required Foundation Classes – All General Applicants must begin with Session 1

- Session 1 – Introduction to Foundations / Orientation – 3 hours
- Session 2 – Importance of Birth Families– 3 hours
- Session 3– Child Development and the Impact of Abuse– 3 hours
- Session 4 – Sexual Abuse– 3 hours
- Session 5 – Behavior Management– 3 hours
- Session 6 – Valuing the Child’s Heritage– 3 hours
- Session 7 – Families Together – 3 hours
- Session 8 – Next Steps for Providers – 3 hours

SLAM! It’s all sessions, done in order, over 3 days. Register for the entire SLAM or only for the Sessions you missed on Tues/ Thursday. You may mix the Tues/ Thursday classes with Sessions from the SLAM, however you must begin with Session 1 if you are general applicants.

Classes you may be required to take depending on the age of the child in your care:

- Basic Care of At Risk Infants – all providers caring for children 18 months and younger (Basic Care – Infants) 6 hours (1 hour lunch); you may take Advanced Care of at Risk Infants class first.
- Child Passenger Restraint Training– all providers caring for children 8 years and younger (CAR) 2 hours
- CPR and First Aid – all providers caring for children 18 months and younger. Due to funding limitations, we can ONLY register those who have a current certificate and/or have completed Foundations. Please do NOT ask to register children, babysitters or caregivers. (CPR) 3 ½ hours

Advanced and continuing classes are also available and posted to the Foster and Adoptive Parent Association (FAAPA) website: <http://faapalane.org/> .

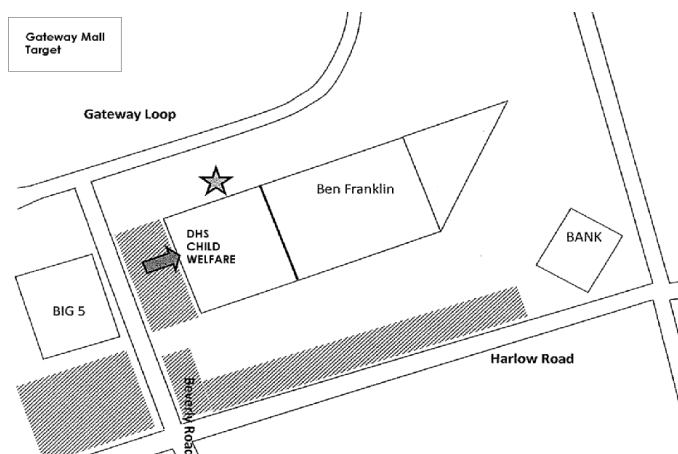

This is the front entrance of the office.

This is the entrance to attend Foundations Trainings. It is on the back of the building, off the alley. DO NOT PARK IN THE ALLEY.

Parking is allowed around the perimeter of our parking lot- please do not park in the center- they will tow. You may also park in the Big 5’s rear parking lot.
