

A Family For Every Child Matching Assistance

"We should not be asking who this child belongs to, but who belongs to this child."

Trauma-Informed Parenting

The following is a handout from the National Child Traumatic Stress Network (NCTSN) that covers trauma-informed parenting. This information is a must-read for all parents who are adopting children who have experienced trauma. You can access a copy of the handout here. Please note that it is a very large file, and may take a couple of minutes to load.

You can also access the individual modules here.

You may download a copy of my notes on the subject here.

For more information on trauma and resources to help your child and family heal, please visit the NCTSN site.
