

Parenting Plan (Child's name and family)

Case worker's name:

Day time phone:

Evening phone:

Cell phone:

Foster parents' names:

Address:

Day time phone:

Evening phone:

Cell phone:

Therapist's name:

Day time phone:

Evening phone:

Cell phone:

Other resource people:

If the child has a medical emergency:

Who should be called? Where should the child be taken? Who needs to be notified?

If there is a different kind of emergency:

Who should be called? Who needs to be notified?

If we need to reach someone in the night time?

Who should we call first?

Instructions:

1. List behaviors that have been a concern or challenge for this child in the past. Add as many boxes below as needed. For each one,, describe the behavior in detail by writing down the answers (if known) to the following questions:

- a. What does this behavior look like?
- b. How long does it last?
- c. How long has it been going on?
- d. What’s behind the behavior? That is, what brings it about?
- e. What has been effective in past in helping this child avoid or get past the behavior?

2. Your planned response to the behavior should include some/all of the following:

- a. Prevention of behavior ((ie: clear expectation, consistency, advance warning, diversion)
- b. Timing of intervention
- c. Modeling appropriate behavior for child
- d. Action you intend to take when behavior occurs
- e. How you will have child take responsibility/make amends
- f. Consequences and rewards
- g. Planning ahead for if behavior repeats
- h. Balancing each criticism or correction of a child with several appreciation/praises

Behavior:
Plan:
Behavior:
Plan:
Behavior:
Plan:
Behavior:
Plan:
Behavior:

Plan:
Behavior:
Plan:
Behavior:
Plan: